Every trust account maintained by an active member of the VSB under Rules of Professional Conduct 1.15 ~~shall~~ must also be maintained at a “financial institution approved by the Virginia State Bar” and maintained in accordance with this paragraph and Rule 1.15. A “financial institution approved by the Virginia State Bar” includes regulated state or federal chartered banks, savings institutions, and credit unions that are properly licensed and authorized to do business, have federal insurance on deposits, and have entered into and agreed to abide by a Virginia State Bar Approved Financial Institution Agreement. The Virginia State Bar ~~shall~~ will maintain and publish from time to time a list of approved financial institutions.

(A) Interest-bearing Trust Accounts. — ~~A~~ Every lawyer engaged in the private practice of law in Virginia ~~may~~ must maintain funds of clients in one or more interest-bearing accounts in one or more financial institutions, whenever the lawyer has established and follows record-keeping, accounting, clerical, and administrative procedures to compute and credit or pay periodically, but at least quarterly, pro rata to each client the interest on such client’s funds less fees, costs, or expenses charged by the lawyer for the record-keeping, accounting, clerical, and administrative procedures associated with computing and crediting or paying such amounts.

(B) IOLTA Accounts. — A lawyer ~~may~~ must deposit funds of a client in an identifiable interest-bearing trust (IOLTA) account for which the lawyer has not established procedures to compute and credit or pay pro rata net earnings to such client whenever:

(1) At the time of such deposit the lawyer reasonably expects that the fees, costs, or expenses which the lawyer would be entitled to charge under Paragraph 20(A) would equal or exceed the pro rata interest on such client’s funds (The determination of whether the funds of a client or third person can earn income in excess of fees, costs or expenses the lawyer would be entitled to charge under Paragraph 20(A) ~~shall~~ rests in the sound judgment of the lawyer or law firm, and no lawyer ~~shall~~ will be charged with an ethical impropriety or breach of professional conduct based on the good faith exercise of such judgment); and

(2) The financial institution has agreed to:

a. Periodically, but at least quarterly, remit to the Legal Services Corporation of Virginia (LSCV) interest or dividends on the average monthly balance of each such account or as otherwise computed in accordance with such bank's standard accounting practice, provided that such rate of interest ~~shall~~ must not be less than the rate paid by such bank to regular, non-attorney depositors;

b. Transmit with each remittance to LSCV a statement identifying the name of the lawyer or law firm from whose account the remittance is sent, the rate of interest applied, the period for which the remittance is made, the total amount of interest earned, the service charges or other fees assessed against the account, if any, and the net amount of interest remitted;

c. Transmit to the depositing lawyer or law firm at the same time a report showing the amount paid to LSCV from such interest-bearing account, the rate of interest applied, the fees assessed, if any, and the average account balance for the period for which the report is made;

d. Charge no fees against an IOLTA trust account that are greater than the fees charged to non-attorney depositors, except that an IOLTA remittance fee may be charged to defray the depository institution's administrative costs attributable to calculating and remitting the interest to LSCV; other allowable fees are per check charges, per deposit charges, a fee in lieu of a minimum balance and sweep fees. Allowable, reasonable fees may be deducted from interest or dividends earned on an IOLTA account, provided that such charges or fees ~~shall~~ must be calculated in accordance with the Financial Institutions' standard practice for non-IOLTA customers. Fees or charges in excess of the interest or dividends earned on the IOLTA account, for any month or quarter, ~~shall~~ must not be taken from the interest or dividends of any other IOLTA account. Fees for wire transfers, insufficient funds, bad checks, stop payment, account reconciliation, negative collected balances, and check printing are not considered customary account maintenance charges and are not deductible from the interest or dividends earned on the IOLTA account. All other fees including those non-customary fees just listed are the responsibility of the lawyer or law firm, who in turn may absorb these specific costs or pass along those fees to the client(s) being served by the transaction in accordance with attorney/client agreements. Financial Institutions may elect to waive any or all fees on IOLTA accounts in recognition of their charitable nature;

~~C. Non-interest-bearing Trust Accounts. A lawyer may deposit funds of a client in an identifiable non-interest-bearing trust account for which the account accrues no interest or dividends so long as the attorney or law firm receives no consideration or benefit from the Financial Institution for opening a non-interest-bearing trust account or for converting from an IOLTA account to a non-interest-bearing trust account. A lawyer who elects not to participate in the maintenance of an interest-bearing trust account as described in Paragraph 20(B) must submit such an election in accordance with the procedures set forth in Paragraph 20(F) of this rule.~~

(G) Certification. — On a yearly basis beginning after July 1, 2023, each active member of the Virginia State Bar (VSB) must provide an IOLTA report to the VSB in such form and at such time as developed by LSCV and the VSB (“IOLTA Certification Form”), that the attorney is in compliance with, or pursuant to Paragraph F, exempt from the provisions of this Rule. The VSB and LSCV will establish a process to review compliance. If the IOLTA Certification is timely submitted, indicating compliance, there will be no acknowledgement by the VSB or LSCV. Should an IOLTA Certification Form not be submitted by a lawyer or if submitted, fail to evidence compliance, the VSB and LSCV will establish the process to resolve the non-compliance administratively.
