

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Humphreys, Powell and Senior Judge Coleman

JACQUELINE L. PALMER MERCER

v. Record No. 0967-10-1

SUPPORT SERVICES OF VIRGINIA, INC. AND
TWIN CITY FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

MEMORANDUM OPINION*
PER CURIAM
AUGUST 31, 2010

FROM THE VIRGINIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

(Jacqueline L. Palmer Mercer, pro se, on brief).

(Adam S. Rafal; Vandeventer Black LLP, on brief), for appellees.

Jacqueline L. Palmer Mercer (claimant) appeals a decision of the Workers' Compensation Commission denying her November 10, 2008 claim for medical benefits and mileage and denying her December 5, 2008 claim for wage loss benefits and permanent partial disability benefits.¹ We have reviewed the record and the commission's opinion and find that this appeal is without merit. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the commission in its final opinion. See Mercer v. Support Servs. of Va., VWC File No. 187-49-73 (Apr. 28, 2010). We dispense with oral argument and summarily affirm because the facts and legal

* Pursuant to Code § 17.1-413, this opinion is not designated for publication.

contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the Court and argument would not aid the decisional process. See Code § 17.1-403; Rule 5A:27.

Affirmed.
